

PALAIS ROYAL,

A. Lisner.

G and Eleventh Sts.

Important Information for Professional Milliners.

To-morrow morning will be the time to take account of stock—and replenish. Attention is drawn to the fact that the Palais Royal collection includes all the latest moment, most wanted, and generally scarce shapes and trimmings. With wholesale quantities and less than jobbers' prices, professional milliners will find they save both time and money in purchasing at the Palais Royal. Less capital need be invested—with their source of supply close at hand smaller quantities are needed.

To-morrow

$2.88 to-morrow for $3.50 and $3.25 for all $5 Untrimmed Hats, with choice of every latest shape and color.

15c to-morrow for 19c and 42c for 50c yard Braids, in correctly new effects and colors.

59c to-morrow for the 75c, 84c for $1, and $1.19 for the $1.50 French Flowers and Foliage.

To-morrow

21c to-morrow for the 25c and 38c for the 50c Flowers, &c. Tens of thousands to pick from.

10 per cent discount to-morrow on all Aigrettes at $5 to $60, and all Plumes at $5 to $45.

65c to-morrow for 75c Velvet Ribbons, 33c for 40c Ombre Ribbons, 21c for 25c Maline.

Every Trimmed Hat Reduced in Price

Beginning to-morrow morning with the opening of the store—at 8:30 o'clock. Bring the list—because the regular price remains marked on each hat.

$35 Hats . $28.98

$30 Hats . $24.98

$25 Hats . $19.98

$18 Hats . $14.98

$14 Hats . $11.98

$12 Hats . $9.98

$10 Hats . $7.48

$7.50 Hats, $6.28

Society

Continued from Page Three.

Count Ladislas Cziraky, and Baron Demeter Hye. The bride and bridegroom elect were both recent guests in Washington and were elaborately entertained.

Mrs. Ezra Koon and her daughter, Miss Koon, who are in their apartment at the Highlands, will entertain at dinner on Easter Monday evening. They will leave here late in May for Michigan to attend the quinquennial commencement at Hillsdale College, Michigan, and make visits in Detroit and other cities in the State. They will go to Bar Harbor for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. George W. Mandley has returned to Washington after a visit of a fortnight to her sister, Mrs. William W. Mandley, in Elmira, N. Y.

Miss Mabel Buckingham, formerly of Washington, is the guest for a few days of Mrs. W. G. McWilliams and her daughter, Miss Bernice McWilliams. Miss Buckingham has been traveling extensively for the past year.

The military attaché of the French Embassy and the Countess de Chamburn arrived yesterday morning from Mexico, where they have been visiting for several weeks. They also spent a few days with the countess' mother, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, in Florida.

The military attaché of the German Embassy and Mme. von Livonius returned to Washington last night from New York, where they have made a brief visit.

Mrs. E. Goldensky, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. Charles Schwartz, of the Chesterfield. Mrs. Schwartz will receive for her guest on Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Weyl, formerly of 1810 R street, have gone to North Brightwood for the summer months.

Mrs. Potter Palmer, who was a winter guest in Washington, sailed on Thursday for Europe. She will spend the spring in London, where she has a house, and will later go to Paris for a few weeks. She will return to Chicago during the summer.

Mr. Albert J. Akin, of New York, son-in-law of the Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham, arrived yesterday to spend the Easter season with them and Mrs. Akin, who has been here several weeks.

Mr. Eames MacVeagh, son of the Secretary of the Treasury, has arrived here to spend the Easter season with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lutz Anderson have returned to their mansion in Massachusetts avenue to spend the spring season. They have been in Florida and Boston since leaving here last month.

Lieut. W. H. Faust, U. S. N., and Mrs. Faust, with their children and maids, will sail from Genoa, Italy, on April 4 for home. They have spent the winter in Cannes, and from that place have motored to many interesting points along the Riviera. Lieut. Faust won the Gordon Bennett challenge cup for 1908, and the Castle of Wemys challenge cup for 1910 at the Cannes golf links.

Capt. William Bainbridge Folwell, U. S. A., retired, and Miss Folwell sailed Saturday for Cuba. Their address will be Trinidad, Santa Clara province, where Capt. Folwell's interests are.

Miss Dorothy Hayden, daughter of Commander and Mrs. Everett Hayden, has returned home after a three month's visit with Assistant Surgeon and Mrs. Reynolds Hayden, at Guantanamo, Cuba.

Mrs. Elliott, wife of Surgeon Middleton Stuart Elliott, U. S. N., will be hostess at a bridge party on April 1, at 3 o'clock, at her residence in LeRoy place.

Mrs. Heger, widow of Dr. Heger, U. S. N., is visiting friends here at 2020 P street.

Mrs. Edward W. Chatterton and little daughters, Margaret Louise, Eleanor, and Elizabeth, of Auburn, N. Y., formerly of Washington, arrived in the city yesterday morning, to remain during April. They are the guests of Mrs. J. M. Lenhart, of 63 Randolph place northwest.

Mrs. Neal, wife of Lieut. George P. Neal, U. S. N., attached to the U. S. S. South Carolina, is the house guest of Miss May Nicholson, daughter of Rear Admiral Reginald F. Nicholson, U. S. N., at their apartment at Florence court. Mrs. Neal, whose marriage took place recently at Mare Island, Cal., is the daughter of Capt. John B. Milton, U. S. N.

Lieut. William Tipton Conn, Jr., U. S. N., on duty at Annapolis, and Mrs. Conn will visit Mrs. Alfred T. Hoen, of St. Paul street, Baltimore, for the week-end.

GEORGETOWN.

Mrs. Whitford, of Fort Myer, will entertain at tea this week. The guest of honor will be her mother, Mrs. Rigney, of Cuba, who is making a visit of several weeks at Fort Myer.

Mrs. Jefferson F. Moser and her granddaughter, Miss Helen Clyde Moser, will leave to-morrow for a visit to relatives in Baltimore.

The services at Peck Memorial to-day will be conducted by Dr. Wallace, of Pottsville, Pa. It will be some weeks before the pastor, Rev. H. Barrymore Angus, will be able to return from High Bridge, N. J., where he has gone for his health.

There was no dance on Tuesday at the Dumbarton Club, but several affairs are promised during the next two weeks.

The sewing school of Peck Memorial Chapel will have its commencement the afternoon of April 16. There will be exercises, exhibit of work done in the school, and also an exhibit of the carpet weaving done by a branch of the school. Prizes amounting to $50 will be awarded members of the sewing class.

Miss Clara Hinzler will spend her Easter vacation in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Miss Nan Skinner, of Delaware, was the house guest last week of the Misses Towles, of Mount Pleasant.

Miss Anne Brown is spending the week-end with relatives in Virginia.

Mrs. Thomas Wingfield, formerly Miss Henrietta King, of Georgetown, is visiting her aunt, Miss King, of N street.

Mrs. Sidney Smith has returned to her home in Virginia, after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Hibbs, of Dumbarton avenue.

Mrs. Boyd, who has with her her granddaughter, Miss Grace Walling, daughter of Capt. Walling, of the New York Navy Yard, entertained for her Saturday evening. Among those invited to meet Miss Walling were Miss Cathryn Powell, Miss Preston, Miss Dickson, Mr. Preston, Mr. Dickson, Mr. Burbank, and Mr. Webb Hogg. Miss Walling will visit at Annapolis before she returns to New York.

The Auxiliary of St. John's, Bethesda, met last Thursday instead of Wednesday with Mrs. J. C. Wallace, of Drummond. Among those present were Mrs. Volney Chase, Mrs. B. B. Wilson, and Mrs. F. C. Wallace.

Invitations are out for a dance to be given by Miss Ruth Latimer and Mr.

John Latimer in honor of Miss Elizabeth Marshall and her brother, Mr. John Marshall. The dance will be at the large colonial home of the family in Drummond.

Mrs. Clara Alvin Smith will move into her new home, 1216 Thirtieth street, the latter part of this week.

The choir of Dumbarton Avenue Church will go to Baltimore to sing at the opening session of the Baltimore Conference at Harlem Park Church. The choir will leave by special car Tuesday, returning the same night. Among those who will go are Mrs. Isaac Birch, Miss Bessie Birch, Mrs. John Mitchell Waters, Miss Nellie Sebastian, Miss Lella Bogley, Miss Virginia Houghton, Miss Lillie Wade, Miss Maude Allen, Miss Lillian Gossage, Miss Mabel Darcy, Miss Louise Darcy, Miss Marian Dyer, Miss Anne Brown, Mrs. Calver, Mrs. J. Albert Houghton, Mrs. Lewis Jackson, Miss Netta Craig, Miss Laura Wade, Miss Mollie Wade, Miss Ella Allen, Miss Clara Dyer, Mr. William T. Glover, Mr. Isaac Birch, Mr. W. Adreon, Mr. Richard Beckham, Mr. J. A. Houghton, Mr. W. W. Houghton, Mr. W. Schwedtfeger, Mr. J. A. Oliver, Mr. Hudson, Mr. Thayer, Mr. Vincent Smith, Mr. C. Wade, Mr. R. Stevens, Mr. Thrift, and Mr. Walter Bogley. The choir will be assisted by Mr. Richard Backing, tenor, and Mr. John Mitchell Waters, basso.

The Home for Incurables had a very pleasant evening given them last week, when Mr. Rodgers and Mr. Felix Mahoney, with a number of friends, entertained with stories and songs.

Mrs. Waldo Hibbs spent Tuesday of last week with friends in Virginia.

The Dumbarton choir gave the cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," Thursday evening. The choir, under the direction of Mr. William T. Glover, did splendid work. The organist was Mrs. Isaac Birch. The soloists of the occasion were Miss Bessie Birch, Miss Netta Craig, Mr. Backing, and Mr. John Mitchell Waters.

On Monday evening Judge De Lacy will make an address in the chapel, and on Thursday evening Miss Collison's class will entertain with a Dark Town minstrel show.

Commander Volney Chase has been ordered to sea duty May 1. During the summer months he will be near Newport, where Mrs. Chase expects to spend part of the season.

Mr. Kenneth Kobb will spend Easter with his cousin, Mr. Gordon Lewis, of Twenty-ninth street.

Mrs. James Davidson entertained at cards for her sister, Mrs. Leeth, who has been visiting in Drummond. The guests were, Mrs. Leeth, Mrs. John Davidson, Mrs. F. C. Wallace, Mrs. J. C. Wallace, Miss Effie Davidson, Mrs. Hunt, and Mrs. Watman. After the games refreshments were served. Later in the week Mrs. Leeth left for New York.

Mrs. Ragan, mother of Mrs. Fleming, arrived Friday from a visit with friends in the Middle West.

The Junior League of Dumbarton Church was most delightfully entertained by Miss Helen Clyde Moser. Among the guests were Miss Bessie Haney, Miss Mildred Cornwell, Miss Helen Waters, Miss Molly Mayes, Miss Ruth Irving, Miss Ella Dorsey, Miss Louise Waters, Miss Ruth Dowling, Miss Martenla Charles, Miss Grace Warner, Miss Esther Bosley, Miss Jennie Shoemaker, Mr. Corcoran Fisher, Mr. Henry Fisher, Mr. George Dowling, Mr. George Charles, Mr.

Walter Bogley, Mr. Walter Dyer, Mr. Preston Warner, Mr. Charles Pate and Mr. James Cornwall. After a few games refreshments were served and there was music by members of the league.

ALEXANDRIA.

Mrs. Edward Carrington Marshall, of Charlotte, N. C., is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Cochran.

Mr. W. B. Crawford, of Renova, Pa., was the week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. S. F. Dyson.

Miss Annie S. Henderson left on Tuesday for Atlantic City, N. J., where she will spend several weeks.

Miss Alberta Regester, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Eleanor Field at her home, 805 King street.

Miss Irene Demory, of Haymarket, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Hurlish at their home, in this city.

Mr. Richard Washington has returned from Dresden, Germany, where he spent the past two years in the consular service.

Mrs. Frank Lambert, of Prince George County, Md., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Lloyd and their little daughter, of Red Bank, N. J., are the guests of Mrs. Lloyd's mother, Mrs. Edward S. Leadbeater.

Mrs. Gertrude McCrea and Miss Bessie Dameron, of Westmoreland County, spent several days during the past week visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White have returned from their wedding trip through the South and are visiting relatives in this city. They will go shortly to Washington, where they will be at home to their friends after Easter.

Miss Mary Hinkle, of North Wilkesboro, N. C., is the guest of Miss Sibyl Smoot. Miss Elizabeth Brown left on Wednesday for Nelson County to spend a week with relatives.

Miss Mildred Foster left on Saturday for New York to spend ten days or two weeks visiting friends.

Miss Mary J. Hoof spent several days during the past week visiting Dr. and Mrs. Strother in Culpeper.

Miss Emma Thom left on Wednesday for Sandy Spring, Md., where she will spend a week visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Shriver of Union Mills, Md., spent several days during the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left on Saturday for Union Mills to spend the week-end.

Mrs. James S. Douglas left on Monday for Warrenton, where she will spend several weeks visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Percy Evans.

Mrs. Arthur Selden Lloyd left on Tuesday for Lewisburg, W. Va., where she will visit relatives.

Admiral N. E. Niles, U. S. N., and Mrs. Niles and Miss Violet Niles are the guests of Mrs. William B. Daingerfield.

Mrs. Earl Vance Fisher, of Mobile, Ala., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Miltstead, at their home in this city.

Mrs. Edgar Carpenter has returned from Eastville, where she visited for the past month her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William O. Nottingham.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Goldie Reynolds of Roslyn, Alexandria County, and Mr. Henry Zimmerman, formerly of this city but now of Washington, were married at the rectory of Christ Church by the Rev. William J. Morton. The bride was attended by Miss Julia Kohler. The best man was Mr. Neale McFarland of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman will make their home in Washington.

Miss Alice Chinn has returned from Fairfax, where, for the past two weeks, she was the guest of her uncle, Mr. Frank W. Richardson.

Mrs. John Held and her children have gone to Delaplane, where they will live in the future.

Miss Annie Ansley, of Washington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smoot in their apartment at the Fairfax.

Miss Eliza Douglas has returned from Richmond, where she spent the past two weeks visiting friends. Miss Douglas was accompanied by Miss Julia Cone, who will be her guest for several weeks.

Miss Louise Critcher, of Washington, was the week-end guest of Mrs. Louis Barley.

Mrs. Albert D. Brockett is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jessie Myers, at her home, in Winchester, Md.

Mrs. Harry Langhorne, of Greenwood, Va., and Miss Marion Peyton, of Charlottesville, were the week-end guests of friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Richards entertained their friends on Thursday evening at their home in Wolfe street in celebration of their twelfth wedding anniversary.

GUEST AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

MISS. HARRIET ANDERSON.

Niece of Mrs. Taft and member of house party for Easter festivities.

Rudolph's "The Fashion Shop of 14th Street."

During our First and Annual Spring Opening this week we offer to the public

SUITS AT $22.50 that have not a superior at $30. In style, design, fit, and finish our suits are distinctly superior. Our coats hold their shape as long as you wear them—and they wear a long time.

All we ask is a trial.

J. S. Rudolph & Co.,

TAILORS-IMPORTERS.

1110 Fourteenth St. N. W. Phone N. 2785.

B. H. Stinemetz & Son Co.
Manufacturers. Established 1856.
F Street, Cor. 12th.

Cold Storage For FURS.

Absolute protection for furs against damage by moth, or loss by fire or theft. All furs carefully cleaned before being put away. Telephone main 3439 and we will send for your furs.

B. H. Stinemetz & Son Co.
F Street, Corner 12th.